Tenth Ward Republican Club.

At the last meeting of the Tenth Ward Republican Club the following resolutions were adopted:

WHEREAS, Under the Constitution of the United States the citizens of this republic are guaranteed perfect freedom in the exercise of their elective franchise; and,

WHEREAS, The primary election is the foundation-stone of the entire system of popular representation; and,

WHEREAS, It is a well-known fact that said primaries have heretofore been gerrymandered in the interests of ward bosses, and the people have been unable to secure candidates to fairly represent their interests, therefore be it

Resolved, That the Republicans of the Tenth Ward, as represented by this club, do most emphatically call upon the Republican Central Committee of this county to adopt the amended Crawford law at the coming primary elections, in order that justice and right may prevail and the people secure fair treatment at the polls.

A LARGE public bath will soon be erected in Philadelphia, from money left by Benjamin Franklin and John Scott. Franklin left in his will, dated April 23, 1790, $5,000 to be used by Philadelphia in such a way that after the lapse of a century the principal and interest should amount to a sum large enough to make valuable public improvements. In 1816 John Scott added $4,000 to this sum. The principal now amounts altogether to about $110,000. Ten thousand dollars of this will be laid aside for another century, after the new bath is constructed.

Established 1871.
